

Learning about Learning Disabilities

by Nancy Scott and Judith Reisman

This tape was developed several years ago to educate teachers, parents, and others about sensory processing difficulties in children (and adults) with learning disabilities. Since then, therapists have used it to educate consumers about sensory processing issues in general.

17 minutes, full color, DVD or VHS videotape

© Minnesota Occupational Therapy Association, 1991

Distributed with permission by the Regents of the University of Minnesota Center for Allied Health Programs – Occupational Therapy